

AI Masterclass Ad Shoot Scripts

SalesGenius | 9 selfie-style ads for Emma and Ryan to record

HOW TO FILM

- Selfie-style. Phone at eye level or arm's length, look down the lens.
- Talk to one agent, not a crowd. Natural light. First words out are the hook, no slow intro.
- Shoot vertical (9:16). One clean take per ad, a couple of takes is fine.
- The hook is the most important line. Say it with energy and a tiny pause after.

FOR THE EDITORS

- Add captions (most people watch on mute).
- Keep the first 3 seconds tight, cut any dead air before the hook.
- Put the CTA as on-screen text at the end: Free masterclass. Details on the next page.
- Export 9:16 (feed/Reels/Stories) and a 1:1 square version of each.

The Rumors

Curiosity • 15 to 30 sec • selfie-style, vertical 9:16, captions on

HOOK

If you're a realtor who's tired of buying leads from Zillow, listen up.
Because the rumors are true.

BODY

Agents are now running their own Facebook and Instagram ads, without an agency, and getting their own buyer and seller leads for a fraction of what they used to pay.

The reason it's possible, even without any experience, is that AI can now build the ads for you.

The targeting. The copy. The messaging.

You just approve it and hit go.

I run a marketing agency that does this for agents, and AI finally makes it something you can do yourself, without hiring anyone.

AD 2

Why An Agency Is Teaching You This

Reason-why / the elephant • 30 to 60 sec • selfie-style, vertical 9:16, captions on

HOOK

You're probably wondering why a real estate marketing agency would teach you to run your own ads. It's a fair question, so let me answer it.

BODY

We're an agency that generates leads and installs conversion systems for our clients.

And we're pretty good at it.

But AI has gotten good enough that the ad-building part, the targeting, the copy, the design, you don't necessarily need a full agency for just that part anymore.

And the truth is, most agents will never hire us for the full service.

You shouldn't have to wait to start getting your own leads.

So we pulled that one piece out, and we're handing it to you.

If you ever want us to run the whole machine for you, we're still here for that.

But you can start running ads yourself right now.

AD 3

Stop Boosting

The mistake • 15 to 30 sec • selfie-style, vertical 9:16, captions on

HOOK

If you're a realtor boosting posts on Facebook, please stop.
You're just lighting money on fire.

BODY

That boost button is designed to get you cheap likes and comments.

Not real buyers or sellers.

That's why you end up with a full feed of comments and zero booked appointments.

Real ads put a real offer in front of the exact people who are about to move.

And AI can now build those ads for you, so you don't even need an agency or a design skill.

AD 4

The Five Minute Window

Data / did-you-know • 20 to 40 sec • selfie-style, vertical 9:16, captions on

HOOK

Quick one for realtors.

Did you know an online lead is only hot for about five minutes after they sign up?

BODY

Call in the first minute and you book appointments like crazy.

Wait until the next day, which is what most agents do if they call at all, and you're chasing someone who's already talked to other agents.

The agents winning right now aren't better on the phone.

They just have their own leads coming in, and a system to reach them fast.

And AI is what makes running those ads simple enough to do yourself.

AD 5

Nobody Shows You How

Authority • 30 to 45 sec • selfie-style, vertical 9:16, captions on

HOOK

Every real estate coach tells you to prospect and get more leads.

Almost none of them show you exactly how to do it.

BODY

So you end up boosting posts, burning money, and blaming yourself.

And it was never you.

Getting leads used to take real skill. Targeting, copywriting, design.

Now AI does all three for you in a couple of minutes.

We've built seven-figure real estate businesses, and now we run a marketing agency that installs these systems for agents every single day.

That's exactly why we can hand you the system that actually works, instead of just theory.

AD 6

Quick Question

Cost of bought leads • 20 to 40 sec • selfie-style, vertical 9:16, captions on

HOOK

Quick question, realtor to realtor.

How much did you spend last month on leads that never picked up the phone?

BODY

Whatever it was, it's too much for tire-kickers.

And the problem isn't you, it's where those leads come from.

Bought leads get resold to five other agents,
so you're all fighting over the same person.

When you run your own ads, you get your own leads.

People who raised their hand for you, and nobody else.

And AI now builds those ads for you,
so you don't need an agency or any tech skills to start.

CALL TO ACTION

I'm going to show you exactly how to do this with AI, step by step, even if you've never run an ad before.

It's free.

AD 7

It Wasn't You

Reframe • 30 to 45 sec • selfie-style, vertical 9:16, captions on

HOOK

If you tried Facebook ads before and they flopped, I want to take that off your shoulders.
It likely wasn't your fault.

BODY

Ads fail for one of three reasons.

Wrong targeting, a weak offer, or creative that nobody stops for.

Those are hard to get right, and nobody ever taught you.

So here's what's changed in 2026.

AI now handles all three of those for you.

You bring the local knowledge, and it builds the ad.

That's the difference between guessing whether your ad will work, and knowing it's done right, so buyers and sellers actually sign up.

AD 8

Never Start At Zero

Emotional • 15 to 30 sec • selfie-style, vertical 9:16, captions on

HOOK

Realtors, imagine never starting a month at zero again.

BODY

No more wondering where the next deal is going to come from.

No more depending on referrals that may or may not show up.

Just your own steady flow of buyer and seller leads,
coming in every week, on your own account.

That's what happens when you run your own ads.

And AI has finally made that simple enough for any agent to do.

CALL TO ACTION

I'm going to show you exactly how to do this with AI, for real estate agents, step by step, even if you've never done it before.

AD 9

Is It Possible

Straight callout • 30 to 45 sec • selfie-style, vertical 9:16, captions on

HOOK

Is it actually possible to get your own buyer and seller leads without hiring an agency, and without being techy?
Yes. Here's how.

BODY

AI can now build your entire ad for you.

It writes the offer, it writes the copy, and it creates the image.

You point it at the buyers and sellers in your area, approve it, and hit go.

It takes about twenty minutes a week to manage.

This is an ad-building strategy that agencies used to charge a fortune for, and AI finally put it back in your hands.

Full done-for-you is still there if you ever want it, but you can start yourself today.
